For a completion grade of 100/100 points, write an essay in which you reflect on your reading and writing throughout this year. Answer the following questions in whatever order you choose, being as specific as possible and developing your thoughts in full:

 - How have you grown as a writer?
 - How have you grown as a reader?
 - What connection have you seen between your writing and reading this year?
 - What strengths and weaknesses do you see in your writing now?
 - Which assignments helped you to develop as a writer?
 - Which texts and assignments helped you to develop as a reader?
 - To what extent will you adjust your writing process to be successful next year?
 - To what extent will you adjust your approach to reading for next year?

Type this response and share it with your teacher by June 17. If it is sufficient enough in length and depth, you will receive complete credit; if it is not sufficient enough, you will receive no credit.
